FROM THE WEST—MOVEMENTS OF THE TWO ARMIES—FIGHT IN ARKANSAS, &C.

Mobile, Dec. 12.

Special despatch to Advertiser and Register dated Murfreesboro', 11th, says: Yesterday morning the enemy, 10,000 strong, re-occupied Hartsville. They refused under a flag of truce to exchange paroled prisoners for our wounded, or permit us to remove our dead. Nashville dates to the 7th say the abolitionists acknowledge a loss of 60 killed at Hartsville. The rebel forces engaged estimated at four thousand.

The abolition army is greatly demoralized.

No prospect of an advance till the Cumberland rises. It is supposed Rosecrans will be superseded by McCook.

St. Louis dates 7th, says it is reported that Hindman and Marmaduke, [illegible] strong, were driven back by Blount at Cane Hill, [illegible]. Next day they drove Blount. Blount had been holding rebels in check four days. [illegible] all night to cover their retreat.

[From our Second Edition of yesterday.]

FROM KNOXVILLE—SPEECH FROM PRESIDENT DAVIS—TRIAL OF COUNTERFEITERS, ETC.

Knoxville, Dec. 11.

President Davis made a speech here this morning. [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] Rappahannock; that at the first of these two points the bridge builders were driven from their work by our sharpshooters, but that at the point below the creek mentioned, the ground being low and open for a considerable distance this side, the artillery, posted on the opposite heights, had silenced our sharpshooters and enabled his men to perfect the bridge. At last accounts our artillery had been brought into a position covering, and completely commanding the open space upon which the enemy's troops would deploy on crossing.

THE YANKEES AND EAST TENNESSEE.—The Knoxville Register publishes the following letter, picked up at Cumberland Gap, after its evacuation by the abolitionists:

CUMBERLAND GAP, Sept. 13, 1862, 8 P. M.

[illegible]

DEAR HARRY: I seize a moment to write you a few lines which I send you by a courier that starts for Somerset [illegible] in a few minutes. The devil is to pay this evening.—We evacuate this infernal place to-night. While I am writing [illegible] boys are now [illegible] on their way to the Ohio. [illegible] East Tennessee renegades General Morgan is almost disposed to leave behind, to the tender mercy of the rebels. I tell you, Harry, they (I mean these [illegible] renegades from Tennessee) are the most complete nuisance a white man ever had to endure. They are an ill-natured, [illegible] set of worthless curs, cowardly, mean, [illegible], contemptible offspring of weak humanity. I think we will run the gauntlet safely. The General has ordered five barrels of good old rye to be left at the spring, so when the d—d thirsty rebels get here they will get drunk and stay drunk while we make tracks for the Ohio.

Give my compliments to all the boys, and say to them we are on the way.

Yours, as ever, RICHARD GORVIN.

JACKSON HEARD FROM.—One of the abolition prisoners at the "Libby" related a colloquy which took place between an Abolitionist and Confederate picket across the Rappahannock recently.

Other side picket—"Hallo! Is it true that Jackson has resigned?"

This side picket—"Yes, I b'lieve so."

Other side—"Why, how's that? What's the matter?"

This side—"They've taken away his Commissary."

Other side—"Who was he?"

This side—"Gen. Banks."

The "other side" picket was "driven in."

This will about do to go with the last anecdote of "long legs Abe," who is said to have remarked of Banks that "it took a great commissary to supply two armies from the stores intended for one."

TO THE LADIES OF RALEIGH.

A LARGE requisition has been made on this Department for [illegible] Hospitals in Virginia, and I [illegible] appeal to the ladies for assistance. All who are disposed to assist in making sheets for this purpose will please communicate with me immediately at my office. Materials will be furnished by the State.

Executive Department North Carolina,
Adjutant General's Office,
Raleigh, Nov. 27, 1862.

General Order,
No. [illegible]

I. THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE States having deemed it necessary to call into service, under the provisions of the recent act of Congress, all persons liable to military duty between the ages of 18 and 40 years, the Commanding Officers of the Militia will call out their respective Regiments and enroll and conduct to the Camp of Instruction all persons liable to military duty under this law, at such times as Colonel Peter Mallett, Chief Enrolling Officer for the State, may direct.

II. The enemy are pressing upon us in great numbers, with the intention to overwhelm us by a winter campaign. Our danger [illegible] from the North side of James river, and on the [illegible] our borders, it becomes North Carolinians to rush even more promptly than before to the defence of our own territory. If we can drive him back once more, as we have so often done, there is every reason to hope that his strength will be effectually broken. The various officers entrusted with the execution of this order are again commanded to use all diligence in arresting deserters and absentees without leave from the army; and all good citizens who prize liberty and independence, are earnestly invoked to assist in hurrying off all such to their regiments. The brave and patriotic soldier will not over-stay his furlough unless providentially hindered. The coward alone will shirk (at home) while his braver comrades endure the heat and burthen of the fight.

By order of Governor VANCE:

Dec 13-3t J. G. MARTIN, Adj't Gen.

Headquarters Camp of Instruction,
Camp Holmes, Nov. 29, 1862.

Special Orders,
No. 13.

I. COMMANDING OFFICERS OF MILITIA REGIMENTS are required to assemble all persons subject to the provisions of the act entitled "an act to amend an act entitled an act to provide further for the public defence," approved September 27, 1862, and enroll the same.

II. An Enrolling Officer and an Examining Board will be appointed for each Congressional District, who will give due notice to the Commanding Officers of Regiments to bring the Conscripts to the County Seats of their respective Counties for examination. Immediately upon examination, the said Commanding Officers of Regiments will conduct all Conscripts not having received certificate of exemption to the Camp of Instruction, near Raleigh.

III. All persons who may desire to volunteer must do so before the 20th of December, the day set apart for enrollment, and must join companies which were in the service of the Confederate States on the 16th of April, 1862.

IV. Applications for exemption must, in all cases, be made to the Enrolling Officer of the District; duplicate copies of said application being made in writing, duly sworn to before an acting Justice of the Peace, and bearing the certificate of the Clerk of the Court, given under the County Seal and sent through the Colonel of the Regiment. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the Enrolling Officer to the Commandant of Conscripts.

V. All Conscripts engaged on Government works will be enrolled and returned to their said work.

In issuing the above orders for the enrollment of Conscripts between the ages of 18 and 40, the Commandant avails himself of the opportunity to thank the State Officers for their untiring and laborious efforts in the discharge of their duties and the efficient and ready assistance rendered to him in their official capacity heretofore.

The importance and absolute necessity of renewed energy and prompt action in executing these orders faithfully, is fully expressed in His Excellency Governor Vance's General Order, No. 10.

The efficiency of the army and the safety of our country depends, in a great measure, upon their faithful discharge of these duties.

By order of Colonel PETER MALLETT, Commandant of Conscripts in N. C.
